8:50 AM	Award #3: Analyzing Gun Related Violence and Regional Sharing - Sacramento Police Department
Location:	Arizona Grand Ballroom F/G/I/J
Description:	The success of this project started with an organized approach to information analysis of gun-related crime. This allowed Sacramento to zero in on some problem zones and take appropriate action. However, a mass shooting incident at a night club brought the matter of gun violence into focus and the FBI got involved. This eventually ended up in 10 regional agencies sharing vital information. It was an incredible outcome that started with excellent work being done by the Sacramento City Police Department. See how this project accomplished such worthwhile things!
9:10 AM	Award #2: Enhancing Officer and Public Safety by Better Communications - New South Wales Fire and Rescue
Location:	Arizona Grand Ballroom F/G/I/J
Description:	During the 2019/2020 bushfire season, New South Wales faced some of the most extreme bushfire conditions in recorded history. This, coupled with communication issues, increased the risk for their firefighters and members of the public. How would they reduce the risk for future incidents of extreme weather / bush fires? Read the fascinating account of what they designed and how it is already reduced risk in a major flooding event that occurred in 2022.

9:30 AM	Award #1: Managing the Conversion from Legacy CAD/MDT to Versaterm Products - Texas Department of Public Safety
Location:	Arizona Grand Ballroom F/G/I/J
Description:	This year the Texas Department of Public Safety has won the first prize in the 2023 Versaterm Public Safety Innovation Award, with its Conversion from a legacy CAD/MDT system to Versaterm CAD and MDT products. This project was outstanding due to the extensive use of MDT Designer software that allowed them to make screens function more like the system the officers were used to. This provided familiar key-clicks, and screen layouts, all within the new system. This improved officer acceptance and officer safety, while flattening the learning curve. This is an outstanding example of using existing tools to make the product work better for an organization, without doing custom work that would require repeated effort for each new Versaterm Release. This is a project to read to see how your organization can enhance its service delivery.

1:30 PM	Implementing Self-Dispatch Protocols: Mesa PD Innovation Project	3C.6
Speaker(s):	Anthony Coppola & Bryan Bowers, Mesa PD
Location:	Desert Willow
Description:	Mesa Police will discuss their Innovation Award submission focused on creating a way to allow officers to self dispatch themselves to certain call types based on creating multiple queues. They wanted to be able to self dispatch by priority. If the level 2 and 3 calls are automatically dispatched, and no one notices, it can cause delays in actually dispatching that call. So, creating separate queues for different call types/levels and self dispatching/assignment accordingly. Self dispatching is only for priority 2 and 3 calls, not priority 1. Priority 1 would be over the air, multiple units assigned, etc.
